

Leadership Team-Report for September 13, 2011

Attendance: Rich and Jolee Joos, Connie and Dennis Strain, Casey and Kim Goodson, John Kennedy, Dean and Darlene Hall, Jack Donner

Absent: Kim and Alan Chavez

Prayer requests were taken for Shirley Chance and the CMA presence at the Aspencade event in Ruidoso.

The previous minutes were read and approved by the leadership team.

FINANCIAL

- The leadership team voted to give mission funds of:
 - $400 to the Free Store
 - $500 to Crossroad's Church of Bozeman, MT
 - $557.35 to the Albuquerque Rescue Mission
 - $155.22 to the benevolence fund
- The team approved the current finance report.

OLD BUSINESS

- The leadership team discussed the need to outsource the church payroll to a local CPA due to difficulties with QuickBooks payroll. The leadership team voted to hire Larry Scriptor to take care of all payroll reports.
- Plumbing for the new buildings has not been completed yet. Electrical power is now supplied to all rooms. The refrigerated air units that came with the buildings will not work with the buildings' power supply. The electrical and sheetrock work is being done by volunteers. New units will need to be purchased before Spring.
- The leadership team voted to give John Kennedy a $3000 bonus for the current quarter.

NEW BUSINESS

- The leadership team discussed the idea of promoting the building fund to the church. The team voted to have a church-wide love offering for Growing God's house on October 16th.
- Kim Goodson presented a plan to for the church to host a Harvest Festival on October 29th for elementary-aged children. The leadership team voted to approve her plans.
- The leadership team voted to pay the registration fees for John and Jim Gardner to attend the Baptist Convention financial seminar.
- The leadership voted to give a love offering of $1500 to Ken Ziegler for his great work on the new buildings.
- Jolee gave an update on the state of the Youth department. Jon and Vicki Malk are now the Youth leaders.

The meeting ended with a closing prayer.
